Closing Board Comments

Councilman Trovei appreciated everyone coming out. They will take to heart their comments. They want to listen.

Councilman Dean said it was important for people to come out and speak up. He felt it was a great part of being American and to speak in peace, though it is never perfect. Part of their job is to make decisions even when they are unpopular.

Councilman Schock added that sometimes they don't always know how to fix it.

Councilman Smith said that change is a concern and a heavy decision.

Supervisor Spears said they don't have easy answers and they look at 8,400 numerous problems ...they tried to get Dragon Springs to do the right things. For the new project, they will listen to the residents and review everything by everyone.
